Be their favorite house for the right reasons.

Parents, a welcoming home is one where kids feel safe and have clear boundaries.

- Make room for friends and fun
- Talk openly about expectations
- Keep alcohol secured and off-limits

Adults set the example.

Communities set the standard.

Safe, supportive communities help prevent underage drinking. You can help by:

- Setting clear expectations
- Not providing alcohol to anyone under 21
- Being someone young people can trust
